ROZPRÁVOČKA MOJA NAJ...

Let's go back to the fairy tale

"The little fairy tale – My the loveliest 2019" – 4 th Year of Children's Art Contest

In today's pre-technological world, social networks, let us return, and especially our children, to the beautiful times of the fairy tales, to the time of the kings and princesses, to the time of the evil dragons, to the victory of good over the evil. Our civic association organizes this year III. The annual children's art contest titled "My Decorations". While in the first year we saw nearly 100 work from children, in the second it was over 150 already with international participation. But in 2018 it was record because we got 981 beautiful pictures from Slovakia and all of neighboring countries. The ambition of the organizers in 2019 is to involve all Europa in the competition.

The aim of the competition is:

- Support of children's art talents
- maintaining reading literacy

-To develop a relationship to literature through reading text

- To raise the interest in expressing the experience of the reading text in an art form
